Since 1920 the Georgia Carolina Council has prepared the youth of the Central Savannah River Area for a life of leadership, adventure, learning and service. Our local Council serves more than 3,000 local youth through the efforts of 1,200 trained volunteers who share their time, talent and resources. Under the leadership of a volunteer board made up of the CSRA's top business and community leaders, the Georgia Carolina Council provides the youth of our community the greatest youth development program in the world.
